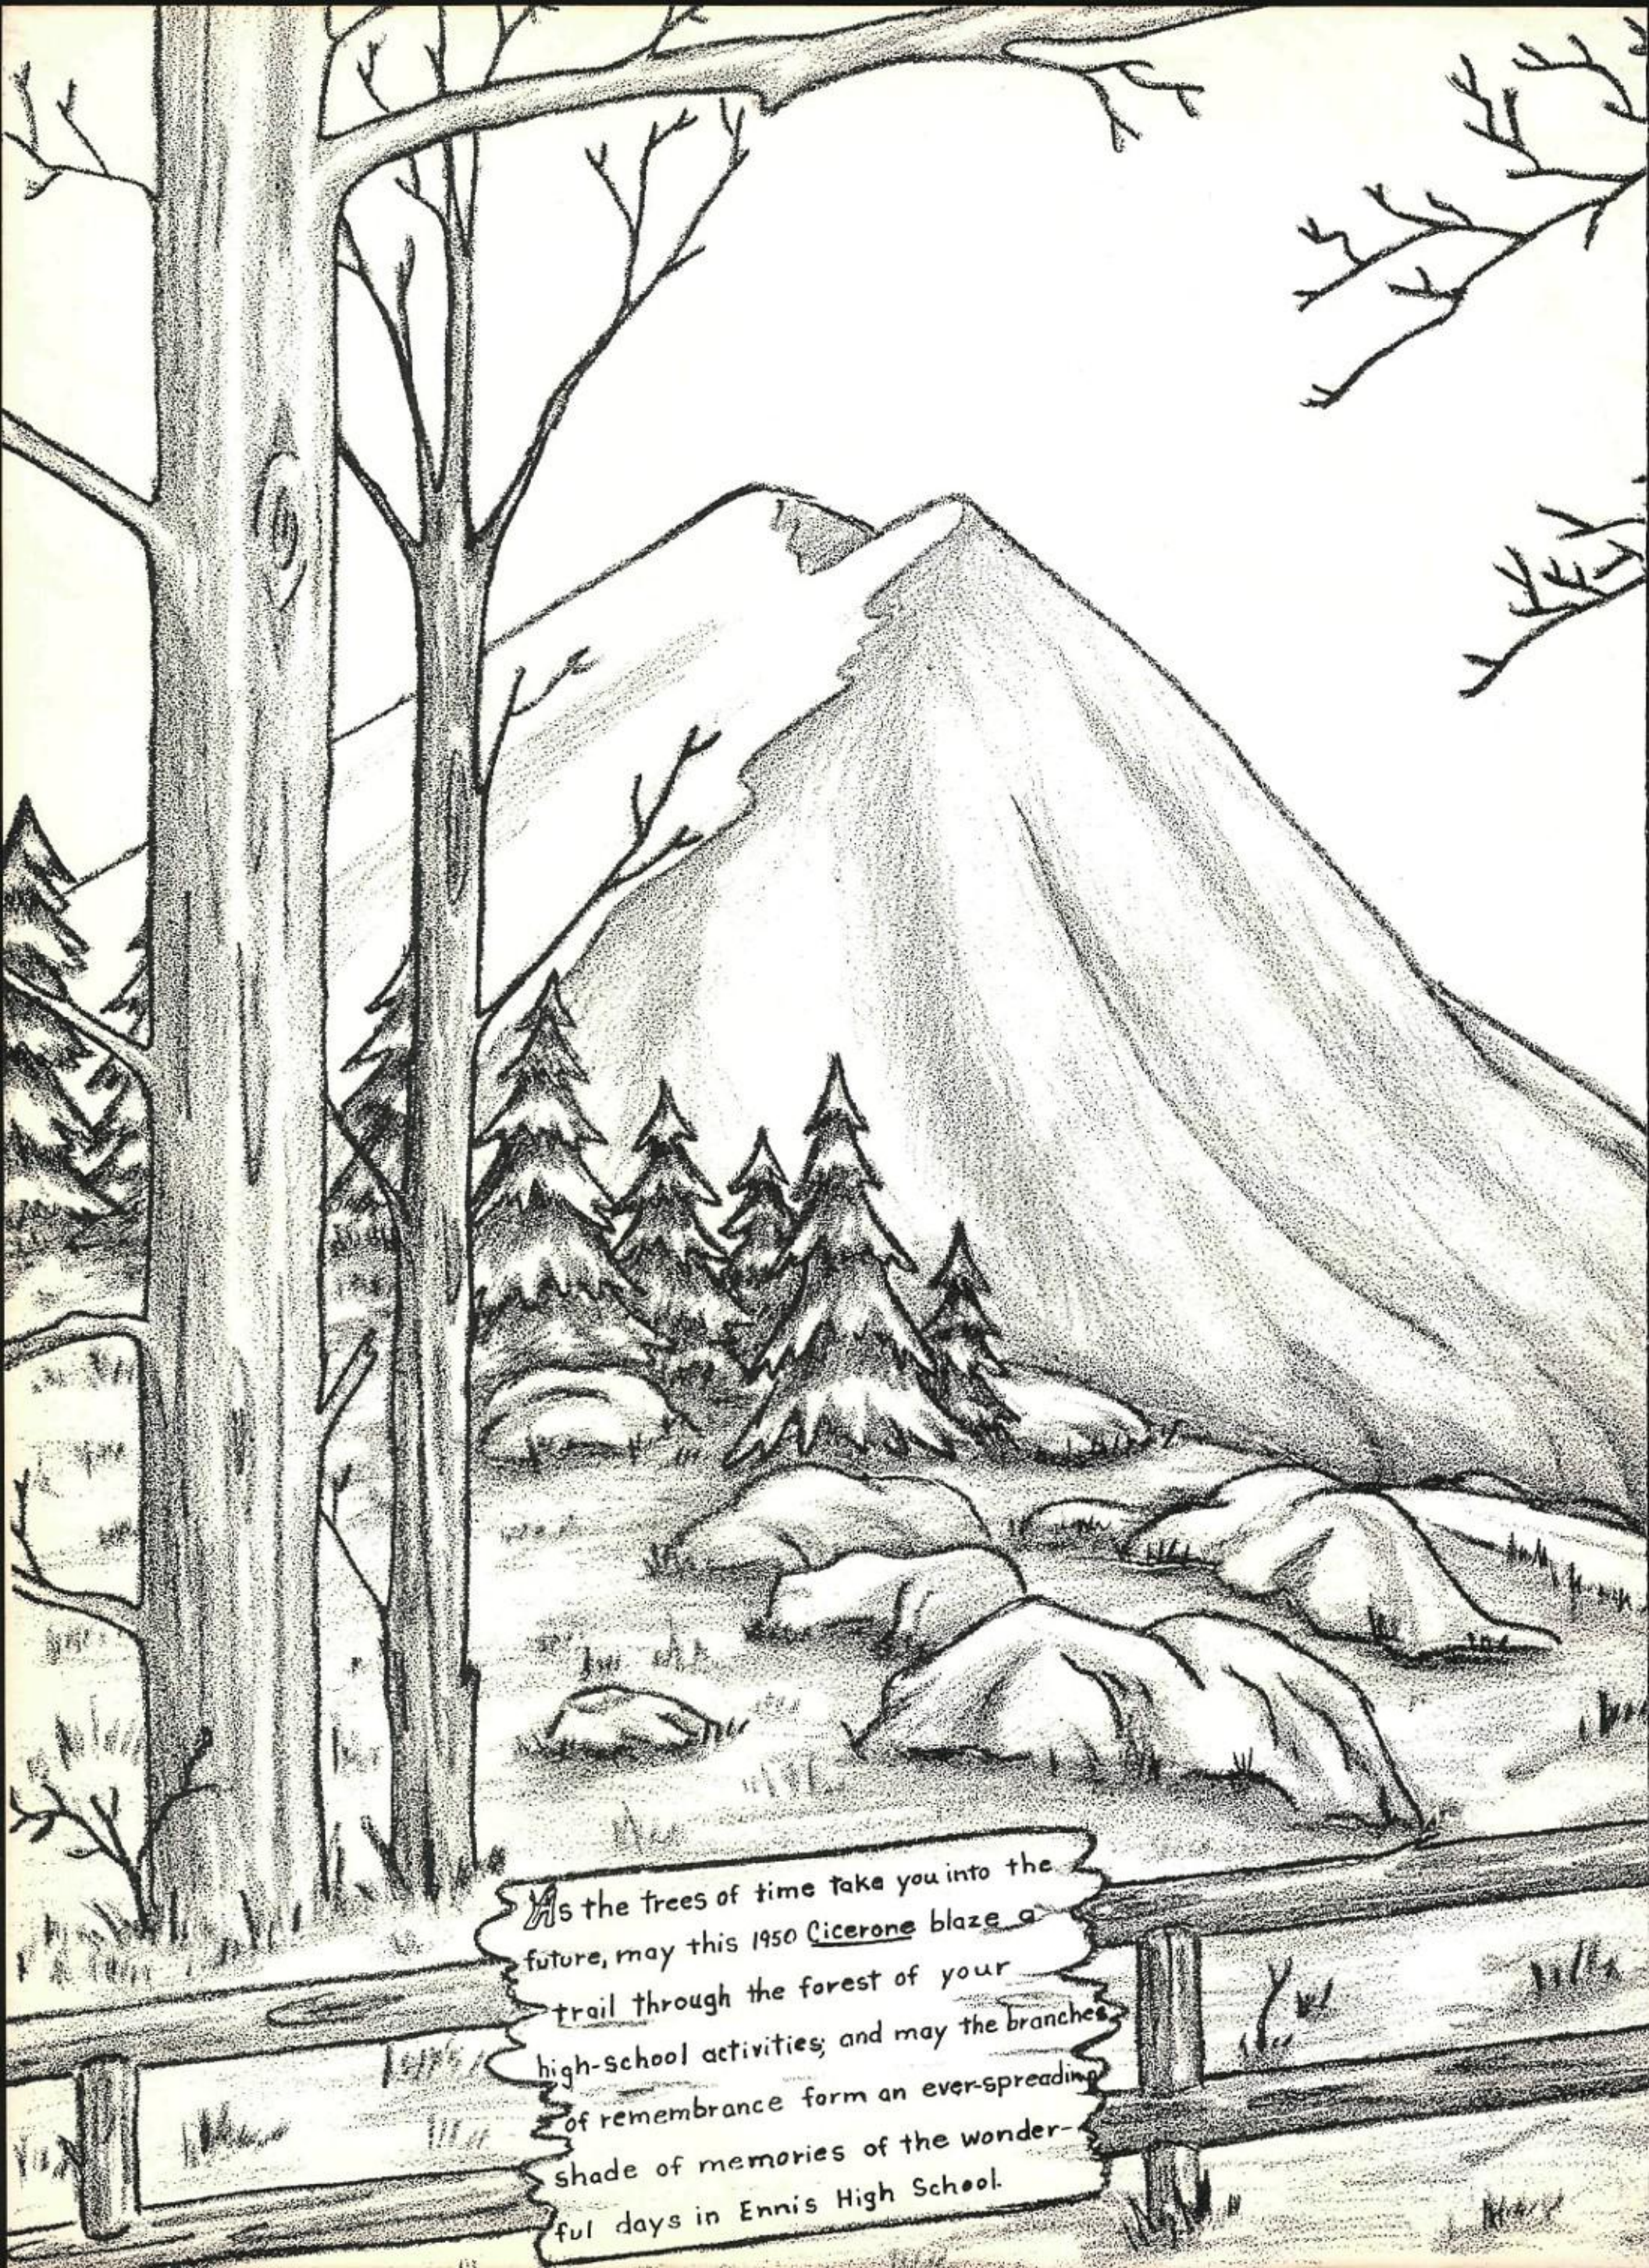
Published by
Ennis High School
Ennis, Texas



As the trees of time take you into the future, may this 1950 Cicerone blaze a trail through the forest of your high-school activities; and may the branches of remembrance form an ever-spreading shade of memories of the wonderful days in Ennis High School.

Maroon and White

Arr. by
Bob Banner

Composed by
Thos. B Granger

Ennis, old Ennis, we'll stand by thee, faithful and loyal we will ever be. True to thy colors that stand for right, loyal sons and daughters of Ma-roon and White. We will always face the conquest with spirts bold. Laurels for old Ennis Hi will be our goal.

As we, the loyal sons and daughters of Maroon and White, pass the half-way mark of the twentieth century, we proudly dedicate this 1950 CICERONE to our song in gratitude for its heart-warming and spirit-moving notes. The Spirit of "Maroon and White"--may it never die, but grow stronger with each turn of the century.

J.F. Gardner

Because of his deep, untiring interest in all school activities and his ever-ready word of friendly counsel, our superintendent, Mr. James F. Gardner is greatly admired by the student body.

A. B. Roach

A man with a love for young people, an interest in the problems of each student, and an understanding of all phases of school life is our principal, Mr. A. B. Roach.

Board of Education

DR. A. L. THOMAS

Each student's welfare is the genuine interest of the Board of Education. This board is composed of a group of citizens who direct the policies of the Ennis High School. Six of the seven present members are pictured above (left to right): Leo Kirkpatrick; S. S. Whitlock; Philip Todd; W. R. Schween; Joe Hawkins, secretary; and A. L. Thomas, president. Not pictured is E. C. Oates, vice president.

Classes

Enjoying the first snow of the winter are the senior class officers-Pat McEver, president; Dean Wilson, vice president; Minnie Ballew, secretary; and Jane McBrierty, reporter.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Drewise Davis, chairman, Miss Katherine Maxon, and Mr. H. E. Williams, the class has been very active throughout the year. "Within ourselves our future lies" is the class motto; yellow and white are the chosen colors; and the daisy is the emblematic flower. A definite interest in all phases of activities was manifested by most senior class members. There were ten football lettermen, four basketball lettermen, eleven band members, twenty Cicerone and Dandee Lion staff members, and twenty-five seniors serving as officers of various clubs.

This class, one of the largest and most active in high school, is well represented on the football team with three lettermen-Newman, Vavra, and Wright-Manager, Jimmie Gardner, and eight other team members. Following the batons of drum major, Gloria Martin, and Majorettes-Sally McEver, Joan Heizer, and Ann Reed-are eighteen additional band members from the junior class. Other active juniors are Nita Speck and Nell Lisman, yell leaders; Ann Reed, Ronnie Stevens, Harry Stone, Winnifred Huff, Dayton Ward, Jean Robertson, and Thelma Ferguson, Cicerone Staff members; and Judy Leatherman, Dandee Lion Junior editor. Class sponsors are Miss Ruth Poff, chairman, Miss Maude Barkley, Miss John Overall, and Mr. Noel Gray.
